HISTORY OF ELKS TOWER:

A little history about the Elks Tower. In 1926 the Sacramento Elks ran out of room for their meetings. The Sacramento Elk members got together and decided to erect a 14 story brick and steel tower on the corner of 11th and J Street. Now there are a few stories that this place is haunted. Here's a story from a local named Terence White. Terence White attended a friend's wedding at the Elks Tower. When Terence went to the restroom, a strong hand grabbed his right shoulder and he turned around, no one was there. Terence went back to the wedding party.

Terence was a bit shaken from his experience and Terence believes that this building is haunted. It is said that the Elks Tower is a popular destination for weddings and events. They restored the ballroom and many people have commented on how beautiful everything is inside. At one point of time, the Elks Tower was the city's tallest building. A little tidbit is the fact that the building owner in 2016, proposed to turn part of the tower into a luxury casino and swanky vintage card room, but legal obstacles got in the way and the waters of that proposal are now stagnant. Elks Tower is built in the style of the Italian Renaissance period. A radio station called KZAP has their transmitter on this building. KZAP is a free form radio station. Elks Tower has 100 hotel rooms and a storefront. The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, the group which commissioned the building is a fraternal order founded in 1868.

CLOUD CREATURE OF ELKS TOWER:

Lena Carpenter also attended a wedding at Elks Tower and when walking down the hallway, came upon a dark mist. The dark mist as Lena describes it, was cloud like. Lena said at one time it was fluffy like a cloud and it was dark. It reminded her of a dark rain cloud. Then two small arms with tiny hands came out of the cloud creature. Lena said she has never told anyone about her experience. Lena says she can still see this cloud creature in her mind. The experience haunts her to this day.

MY EVP:

After receiving information about the Elks Tower from Terence and Lena, I had to do some research on the tower and I could not find any deaths connected to the tower. Of course the tower is very old, it was built in 1926, so anything could have happened at this tower. Plus, the fact that it has 100 hotel rooms inside this building. Anything could have happened in any of those rooms, during a long period of time, that starts back in 1926. I have been on the first floor and walked around the building. I did manage to get an EVP (Electronic Voice Phenomena) outside of the building. The EVP was of a man's voice that said..."why are you here?"

As for anyone dying inside of this building, I cannot locate any records that indicate that, but I did find information on a nearby homicide and homeless people that have died near this building. Another factor is that if someone in the past attended the Elk's meetings at this tower and died at their home, they may be haunting the tower, because it was a place that they loved going to and a place that they are very familiar with. The dead have a habit of haunting the places they enjoyed while living.

WHO ARE THE ELKS?

The Elks originally borrowed a number of rites, traditions, and regalia from the Freemasons. However, by the first decade of the twentieth century, much of this had been abandoned as the Elks sought to establish their own identity. The original two degrees required for membership were consolidated into one degree in 1890, the apron was discontinued in 1895, the secret password was gone in 1899, and the badges and secret handshake were abandoned by 1904.

INITIATION INTO THE ELKS:

Initiation and funeral rites still exist, however. The initiation rite is not considered a secret. The initiation involves an altar, with a Bible upon it and chaplain leading the brethren in prayers and psalms. The candidate must accept a "solemn and binding obligation" to never "reveal any of the confidential matters of the Order". He further promises to uphold the Constitution of the United States, protect brother Elks and their families, only support worthy candidates for admission and never bring political or sectarian questions up into the Order. The funeral rite is called the "Lodge of Sorrow" and also involves prayers.

Shadow the Tarantula

FIRE SPRITE OF ELK'S TOWER

The strangest story that I heard was that on one of the top floors a tiny fire sprite is seen going from one room to another. I met Randy Laybourn at Bobby McGees in Citrus Heights. Randy said that he was once a window washer for this tower. Randy said a fellow window washer was walking through the hallway and saw a small flying humanoid, probably 2 inches in length, that was on fire, fly from one room to another room. The creature was able to fly through a door like it was butter. From the way Randy was describing this, it seemed like he was describing an elemental, a fire sprite. It makes you wonder, if the Elk members were conducting rituals similar to Freemasons, did they perhaps summon some entities into this building by accident? Is there a portal in this building? Randy says he never saw anything unusual in this building and never had anything considered paranormal happen to him in this building. Randy says that the only strange thing that he witnessed is that he opened up a closet and there were tons of spiders in that closet. Randy says he does not feel this was a paranormal experience, but perhaps something that is natural. Randy says..."female spiders do lay a lot of eggs?"

ABC (Alien Big Cat) Sightings:

There are stories, a lot of stories about a ghostly large black cat or cats that roam the lands around Cornwall, England. Starting in 1978, Bodmin Moor became the hot spot for black cat sightings. Eric Murphy from Liverpool says that in 1982, he spotted a greenish fog that was forming near Bodmin Moor and from that greenish fog, a large black cat appeared. The cat spied Eric and Eric started panicking. It was a flight or fight type of situation. The greenish fog slowly moved towards the black cat and engulfed it. When the green fog lifted, there was no more cat. This makes me wonder, if the Beast of Bodmin Moor is some type of interdimensional cryptid that is able to go from its reality to our own reality? There have been many reports of mutilated livestock that look like they were ripped apart by some wild animal.

You are probably wondering if Bodmin Moor has enough food supply for a large cat or cats, so they can survive. Well scientists scoff of the idea that large black cats can live off the surrounding land around Bodmin Moor. Scientists and biologists say that there is no way a breeding population could survive because of the climate conditions and the food sources to keep these big animals alive. Bodmin Moor as a reported habitat would be most unlikely according to those scientists and biologists. Special Note: I have been to England and rode on a train from London to Edinburgh, Scotland and then took another train to Cardiff, Wales. Believe me, I kept my eyes open at the surrounding countryside, looking for Alien Big Cats and unfortunately I never saw one.

You are probably wondering how could big black cats be inhabiting this region? One hypothesis is that they were imported for private collections or zoos and later escaped or set free. It is illegal to possess a panther, so no report would be made of an escaped panther. Mary Chipperfield and animal trainer released 3 pumas into the wild after the closure of the Plymouth Zoo in 1978 and the start of the legend of the Beast of Bodmin Moor became numerous.

But that doesn't hold water on how these pumas continued to breed, eat and survive. There has to be more to the story. The Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food did their own investigation into the black cats on July 19, 1995 and found "no verifiable evidence" of exotic black cats roaming the countryside. As for the mutilated animals, it could have been some other indigenous species that did it. The government stated there are no big black cats living in or around Bodmin Moor.

So, right after this report was issued to the public, guess what? On July 24, 1995, a boy walking around the River Fowey found a large cat skull. This felidae skull measured 4 inches long by 7 inches wide. It was lacking its lower jaw, but had 3 sharp prominent canines. It was thought to be the skull of a leopard. This hit national news and went viral.

According to Wikipedia:

"The skull was sent to the Natural History Museum in London for verification. A team of entomologists and zoologists from the Natural History Museum in London determined that it was a genuine skull from a young male leopard, but also found that the cat had not died in Britain and that the skull had been imported as part of a leopard-skin rug. The back of the skull was cleanly cut off in a way that is commonly used to mount the head on a rug. There was an egg case inside the skull that had been laid by a tropical cockroach that could not possibly be found in Britain. There were also cut marks on the skull indicating the flesh had been scraped off with a knife, and the skull had begun to decompose only after a recent immersion in water."

Well, there goes the evidence of a skull belonging to an ABC. Was the Natural History Museum in London providing disinformation, or was this an accurate report? There has to be more to the story, because on December 1997 there were farm animals that had strange bite marks on them and there were some unusual photographs taken with binoculars near St. Austell, Cornwall that showed an adult pregnant female jaguar.

Jessica Mora while vacationing in England, visited the River Camel. Jessica spied otter in this river and to her surprise a huge black cat jumped into the river and came out with an otter in its mouth. The Alien Big Cat then scurried away into the countryside. Jessica says her sighting was in 1992. Jessica says the most unusual part of the sighting is that when the big cat jumped into the river, it was solid. As the cat ran away with the otter in its mouth, the back side seemed partially invisible. She could see the outline of its behind, but it seemed transparent. The cat moved so fast and disappeared just as quickly. Special Note: This again has me thinking that this Alien Big Cat is some kind of interdimensional creature. That is why its behind was transparent.

she does not want to do, also the possession causes her to lose certain body functions. She is asking for an investigation, baptism and house blessing. Address to be at: 5v32v1 55th Street, Sacramento, CA - Dan Todd of Paranormal Miners referred Julie to us. Special Note: Julie contacted me and informed me that she lives with her in-laws and her in-laws do not want a paranormal group at their home. Julie says that she has an entity that has taken over her body and is causing her extreme pain. I talked with Julie for a good while over the phone and explained to her how to self-bless her home and I suggested that she should go to a church and get a full submersion baptism, to get rid of her attachment, that is a basic form of exorcism and most people that I have baptized have told me their attachment has immediately left after the full submersion. I wish her well and hope she follows through.

Michael Eugene Sanders called the Paranormal Hotline and told me that he is dealing with a female spirit that committed suicide in his home. He has seen this female spirit 3 times at the foot of his bed and she is usually holding something that is glowing. Michael then tells me that she has now entered into his dream. On 6/16/2021 Michael dreamed that he was in some very small town in the woods. As he was walking down the street he saw a Chinese lantern floating towards him. After the Chinese lantern landed, he then saw the ghost that is haunting his home. This ghost that he calls Anna Dee floats down towards him from the night sky. He says that Anna Dee floated down like Mary Poppins, she was wearing all white and she wore an outfit that looked like bell bottoms, but was very fluffy and tattered at the end and the tattered parts of the pants moved with the wind. Anna Dee then held his hand and he took her to the local bar. The bartender was shirtless and was making a rum and coke for Anna Dee, then all of a sudden he starts concentrating and inhales deeply and his right nipple on his chest starts blowing up into a mushroom shaped skin balloon. When it is large enough, he pulls out some scissors and snips off the skin balloon from his nipple. The skin balloon floats and he hands it over to Anna Dee. I ask the bartender how he did that? The bartender then says he has elastic skin and he is able to make skin balloons from his nipple and the air from his lungs inflates them. Then he starts talking gibberish and I was unable to understand him. I then wake up and Anna Dee is standing at the foot of my bed holding a glowing object in shape of a ball. I scream, I am terrified and Anna Dee fades away into nothingness. I ask Michael why do you call her Anna Dee? Michael tells me that an old woman that lives at the complex for many years, knew of the suicide and said her name was Anna Dee. She took an overdose of sleeping pills and struggled with depression.

I told Michael on how to bless his home and he will proceed to do that. Michael lives in Missouri.

Snakeman by William Carlisle

There are many, many stories, legends of strange monsters in the Appalachian Mountains. If you don't believe me, just ask A.I.M.S. (Appalachian Investigators of Mysterious Sightings). One of the stories that I find intriguing is the story of the Snakeman of the Appalachian Plateaus. This story was told to me by my grandmother Sophie Roberts. Story goes that a man by the name of Spike Henry married a young bride that happened to be a witch. Spike built a cabin for his new bride and Spike would go hunting on a daily basis to provide food for his bride. His bride named Sarah Lee would manage their vegetable garden. They lived very happily together. This was in 1821. One day Spike went to a neighboring town to purchase saddles for his 2 horses and came across a young lady named Torrie. Spike became romantically involved with Torrie and would make excuses to go to the town to purchase this or that. His purchases were through bartering furs, meat or vegetables. Sarah Lee became suspicious and decided one day to head to the local town, while Spike was out hunting. Sarah Lee discovered that Spike was having an intimate relationship with Torrie and this infuriated Sarah Lee. Sarah Lee then placed a curse on Torrie and Torrie 3 days later was ran over by a horse's carriage. Torrie died instantly.

Sarah Lee never confronted Spike about his adulterous activities, but instead started working on a witch's potion that would last for 7 days. Sarah Lee gathered various herbs and the intestines of 3 venomous snakes. During the course of 7 days, Spike became more ill. On the 7th day, he died. Sarah Lee then said some spells over Spike's dead body. The last spell is that Spike would rise in 7 months and he will be transformed into a snake. Sarah Lee thought of Spike as a snake in the grass and deserved this curse. Sarah Lee moved to another area of the Appalachian Mountains to get away from the deceased Spike. In 7 months Spike was resurrected and his appearance was that of a man with a snake's body. Hunters claim that they have come across the Snakeman of the Appalachian Plateaus and any hunter that winds up missing, it was rumored that the Snakeman got them. Snakeman is another legend of the Appalachian frontier. It is said that all legends have some kind of foundation of truth, so you will never know unless you actually encounter the Snakeman of the Appalachian Plateaus. Of course, if you did, would you be alive to tell the story?

INITIAL REPORT

Date to be there: July 10, 2021 Saturday. Time to be there: 6pm. Contact Person: Jeri Smith.

Address to be at: Elk Grove, Ca / Activity: Unusual things are happening at this house and the occupant wants us to find out if it is paranormal. She wants a blessing of the house afterwards.

THE INVESTIGATION:

Wow! I love this place. There were all sorts of animals at this home, that is more like a ranch, because the property is very large. The animals around this ranch were a peacock, chickens, donkey, 2 horses, a dog named Pippi. Jeri owns one of the horses and the other horse is her neighbor's horse. With all of the animals that were around, it was hard for me to focus on the investigation. Deanna Jaxine Stinson, Psychic Medium actually picked up on 3 entities, they were:

1. A dark silhouette of a cowboy in the barn.
2. Dark haired man standing by a guitar case.
3. Woman in the bedroom, but this could be residual energy.

TWO PEOPLE DIED IN THIS HOUSE:

Jeri Smith tells us that 2 people died in this house. We did not get any substantial evidence, but it doesn't mean that this ranch house is not haunted. Jeri was able to call a friend, that is very familiar with the house and he confirmed that definitely 2 people did indeed die in this house. The house was built in the early 60s. Deanna felt faint and stumbled and fell to her knees. Later on she again felt very faint and felt like she was going to pass out. Deanna was feeling certain energy around the house and I don't know if this has anything to do with her feeling faint or was it the heat? Deanna has been in extreme heat before and didn't feel faint, but this time, it really got to her. I'm not a doctor and can't tell you if the cause of her feeling faint was paranormal related or that it was the heat of the day?

Deanna also saw a pigeon fly into the garage. The pigeon is a totem animal or spiritual animal, pigeons represent love. Dove has been a symbol of love and peace for years back and this symbolism remained even to this day. People with this totem are loving and kind with a good understanding of life and problems that others might be having. Pigeons also represent sacrifice. Jeri Smith is a caring person and loves people, it would make sense that she has a good force watching over her house. I conducted a Roman Catholic house blessing with holy water. Thank you Jeri for the watermelon and large squash, it was a pleasure to investigate your home.

Born: ? Died: 7/12/2021

To an angel that will always be in my heart.

Hannah is a black Pekingese. Hannah came into our lives in and around the year 2011. Her former owner was Gina de la Rosa. Hannah had an owner before that and that owner named her Hannah, after a street in Hawaii. When she came into our lives, the name Hannah remained. Hannah became the companion to my other dog Hi-Pee. Hi-Pee was feeling very lonely, when his buddy Pika died. To cheer Hi-Pee up, Hannah came into his life. Hi-Pee and Hannah were inseparable. We gave our dogs many walks and many rides in our vehicles. Our dogs even became ghost hunters and UFO hunters. We would bring them along on certain cases. Hannah and Hi-Pee were definitely Canine Paranormal Investigators. When Hi-Pee was about ready to die of old age, Hannah walked over to him and laid her head on his stomach, she knew he was ready to pass. When Hi-Pee passed away in our kitchen, Hannah became very depressed and sad. We knew we had to get Hannah a new companion. Along came Story, our Aushire (1/2 Australian Terrier and 1/2 Yorkshire Terrier). He was 3 years old and the lady that owned him said in her ad, that if he was taken today, he was going to the dog pound. Deanna jumped on it and contacted her and brought Story into our lives. When Hannah got used to Story, they also became inseparable. They would lay together, enjoy car rides together and enjoyed walks together.

Hannah has to be about 18 years old, when she passed on. I will never forget this beautiful loving dog. When Deanna came into my life in 2014, Hannah instantly fell in love with Deanna. Hannah would follow Deanna around the house. Wherever Deanna went, Hannah went. If we were a wolf pack, Deanna became the #1 alpha wolf in our household and I became #2 wolf. Deanna added "princess" to her name, because she was a princess to our eyes. Hannah was a very intelligent dog. She actually invented games. One of her favorite games was "bait biscuit". I would give her a biscuit and she would place the biscuit in front of her and wait for Story to sneak up to her, to try and take it and she would go "off" on Story, barking and snapping away. She wouldn't hurt Story, but she got a kick out of playing that game with him. Another game she liked to play is "watch the dummy". She would jump out of the car and run over to the neighbor's house. I would walk over to her, to bring her back home and as soon as I got 2 feet away, she would dart off and head back to the house. When playing "watch the dummy", she would have the biggest smile on her face. She loved playing that game with me. Hannah had a beautiful soft black coat and she loved having her belly rubbed. When I would pet her, she instantly turned over to get her belly rubbed. She also had a beautiful black mane, she would look like a little black lion and it inspired Deanna to write books like Lion Moon and Hannah was the inspiration.

Hannah and Story went on an all night UFO hunt in Placerville and they loved it. They were able to walk around and explore the strange territory in Placerville. They got snacks all night long and were able to snuggle with each other in the back seat of my car, with blankets and pillows to get lost in. On that night, Story and Hannah became Ufologists. Story became a big brother over Hannah and he doted on her, watched over her and made sure she was keeping up with me and Deanna on our walks. He would look back for her and made sure she was walking along the same path. When Hannah became ill, everything happened so suddenly. Just a few days back, she had pus in her eyes. Her one eye became cloudy. The veterinarian said she was going blind in one eye. Then two days later, she is crying and licking a huge bump on her lower stomach area. Hannah was in pain and her cries echoed through the house. Old age snuck up on her and old age was taking its toll on her quickly. Hearing her cries, I knew it was time to take her to the Veterinarian Emergency Hospital. When the vet saw her, she convinced me, that she needs to be taken away from her pain. It was time for Hannah to leave us. I kept petting Hannah and she looked at me in the eyes, it was a comforting stare. I think she knew it was time for her to go. She even stopped crying, because she saw I was crying. I love her so much, she brought so much happiness and joy in our lives. Deanna couldn't go with me, she was an emotional train wreck, streams of tears ran down Deanna's face. It's like losing a child. Story was confused and didn't know what was going on, but he suspected something was amiss.

I never had to put down a dog in my life, but I couldn't let Hannah go through the agony and pain. I couldn't let her suffer. I had to be strong. The first injection through an IV was to put her to sleep, the 2nd injection was to stop her heart. The veterinarian pulled out her stethoscope and said she had passed after the second injection. Now, I was an emotional train wreck. I couldn't stop crying. They brought out Hannah in a white cardboard coffin, she was wrapped in a blanket. There was no way that I was going to leave Hannah at the hospital, her body would go home with me tonight. Tonight I would bury her. In her grave, Deanna said prayers and placed crystals in her gravesite. Hannah will always have a piece of my heart. Hannah was so special and so full of love. Hannah was very independent, she loved sleeping with us, but would jump off the bed and sleep in another area of the room. If you gave Hannah too much love, she would lean back to let you know that she had enough loving. She loved to eat and would take a whole hotdog in her mouth and eat it. Even tonight, before she passed on, she still had an appetite and ate a whole hotdog, before she died. Hannah was an incredible dog and to live for 18 years, was an incredible feat on her behalf. I look at Story and he knows something isn't right. He is probably wondering where his sister is. He looked around the house and now he is moping and acting depressed. We have to find Story a new companion. Story is sad, he knows Hannah is gone. Hannah you are truly missed. We love you so much, you were such a sweet precious girl and I will always miss your cute little yelp. Rest in Peace Hannah, you will never be forgotten.

Last Minute Paranormal Cancellation

I have been on almost 2000 paranormal investigations and only a handful here and there will cancel. Very few will cancel at the last minute. Well, this one did. After I called Nancy (the client) 2 hours before the investigation, she tells me that everything is a GO! HPI Paranormal Investigators / Team Members were getting ready for a 1900 Hours paranormal investigation. They were: Valerie Chenoweth and Greg; Mike Ouillon; Michelle Mesa; Kamilah Novak, Heather Colburn and Alaceo "Big Al" Rosatano. Deanna Jaxine Stinson and I, were already on our way. We arrived early. We arrived at 6pm. The start time for the investigation was at 7pm. The reason why we got there early, is because we wanted to get everything set up, before the other investigators arrived. As I approached the house, the client Nancy was outside smoking a cigarette. She looks at me and tells me that she is having a major fight with her boyfriend and that at the last minute it was the boyfriend, who didn't want strangers in his home. He has also threatened Nancy and told her that she must find another place to live. Nancy looks at me and says..."that's where I am at." I gave Nancy a bag full of incense, sage, candles. Nancy then gives me a big hug and says she is sorry. I just wish she could have called me to tell me that she was canceling, so I wouldn't have driven all the way from Elk Grove to Carmichael. Below is my initial report in regard to the investigation:

PARANORMAL INVESTIGATION:

Date to be there: July 17, 2021 Saturday. Time to be there: 7pm. Contact Person: Nancy. Case # 9N16K710U4919. Address to be at: 4x8x0x9 Foster Way, Carmichael, CA. Activity: Nancy has an attachment, she does not know where it came from, she calls the entity "Crunch Crunch" because when it walks, it makes a crunching sound. Crunch Crunch moved a bench, has pinched Nancy, moved couch where the couch hit Nancy's back and made a loud banging sound; boom sound coming from floor; the entity sprays mist on her and touched Nancy with his fingers. The activity is escalating. Nancy cried over the phone several times while telling me this story. Nancy wanted us to conduct an investigation, so we can identify the demon and the ghost. Nancy also wanted a full submersion baptism and a Roman Catholic home blessing and a metaphysical house cleansing. I would have conducted the baptism and Roman Catholic home blessing and Deanna would have conducted the metaphysical house cleansing.

DAISY DARK BOTTLE:

Nancy is terrified of the demon she calls "Crunch Crunch" and she feels a ghost she calls Daisy Dark Bottle protects her. I had Deanna draw Daisy Dark Bottle from Nancy's descriptions. Nancy says that after she is touched repeatedly by Crunch Crunch, Daisy Dark Bottle will walk into the bedroom carrying her dark bottle and sprays a liquid on Crunch Crunch. Crunch Crunch will then vanish into the shadows and Daisy Dark Bottle will just smile at Nancy and fade away into nothingness. Nancy believes Daisy Dark Bottle was a grade school friend named "Daisy". Nancy was friends with Daisy throughout grade school. The last thing Nancy heard is that Daisy died in a head on car accident. Nancy inherited some of Daisy's personal belongings and because of that, she feels Daisy's spirit is in the house.

THE CLEANSING:

Nancy tells me that she has followed my directions on self-blessing her own home and has been using holy water. Deanna has now supplied her with sage, so she can conduct a metaphysical cleansing of her home.

ANOTHER PAIN IN THE AXX IS:

The fact that I have to notify everyone as quickly as possible to let them know that the investigation is canceled, so they don't drive or take a Uber to the home. Last minute cancellations are definitely a pain in the axx!!

INITIAL REPORT:

Date to be there: July 24, 2021 Saturday. Time to be there: 7pm. Contact Person: Hannah Crusse. Case # 5P30Y650K9184. Location: Knights Landing, CA - Activity: Hannah is being tormented by an unknown entity. Hannah has explained the activity happening in her home.

COMMENTS BY PAUL DALE ROBERTS:

When I go on Facebook, I have some interesting friends that have some interesting stories to tell, from Ken Gerhard - Monster Hunter to Brian Pulido - Creator of Lady Death to Joseph Michael Linsner - Creator of Dawn to Brad Meltzer from History Channel's Brad Meltzer's Decoded. Facebook can be very entertaining at times. These are my famous friends on Facebook. Then there are friends on Facebook that have their own stories to tell and with this case, its a story from a lady that lives in Knights Landing, that is being terrified by a demonic force. This demonic force may have came from a past life, went through a portal and showed up on her doorstep. This is Hannah's story:

HANNAH IN HER OWN WORDS SAYS:

"For as long as I can remember I have had these crazy vivid dreams or at least I think they are dreams my first one I was about 9 I remember being able to see all around me but I couldn't move it's like a sleep paralysis it's hard to get someone to understand unless they have been through it. Well I was asleep and all the sudden what looked like a million little bugs began falling from the ceiling I couldn't move I couldn't make any noise I was completely frightened I finally was able to run to my moms room and i remember laying in her bed and the bugs were still falling I couldn't get her to wake up. Next thing I remember was waking up in the morning in my moms room. About a week or two later we had to move out of that house because it got infested with ticks outside and in. After that i began seeing what looked like a dark shadow in my room up in the corners I made sure the corners of my room and my bedroom door were always clear and clean so nothing of mine was making it look like a shadow was there I always tried to find an explanation for what it could be but as I got older I realized that it couldn't be explained. I started to think something was wrong with me like I was going crazy or something I never told anyone the things I was going through because I was afraid of what they might say. When I would go to sleep I began having what looked like faces flashing in my head I told myself that it was my mind playing tricks on me. I didn't want to acknowledge what it could be. At the age of 13 not to long after I was molested by my uncle my nightmares became very intense and frequent. Sometimes they were every single night. One night at my moms I was asleep but I was awake I don't know how to explain it I could see all around me I couldn't move make any noise I felt like I was being held down it was like a black mast over me I was trying to yell for my mom or for anyone to help me and I couldn't it went on for a few minutes I couldn't move my arms or legs then it just stopped I was never more afraid than ever before. My heart was pounding out of my chest I was shaking and crying. It got to a point where I hated sleeping because I wasn't sure of what was going to happen It got to we're I knew it was coming it was like falling into a deep sleep sinking into my bed or falling and I knew it was starting. I would try to wake myself up before it began but I couldn't I would try so hard to wake my body up or to move and no matter how hard I tried I couldn't. I began seeing what was like a shadow or a black mast over me almost every time. I didn't know what it was I just knew it wasn't any good i began trying to laugh at it in my sleep but my laugh sounded kind of evil I don't know if I was trying to scare it or what I was doing. It started to try to take me away I felt like it would grab my ankles and I felt like I was going to disappear into another dimension or something I thought I was just going to disappear and nobody would know what happened to me. I would wake up praying every time I was trying to figure out anything to get it to stop.

So in 2016 I moved into a family owned house in knights Landing ca I have never liked knights landing as that was the town I was molested in by my uncle when I was younger and something about it just wasn't right to me it just seemed dark so even though I was skeptical I moved into the home things seemed fine at first eventually my ex and I the father of my kids broke up and I decided to move away for a while so about 6 months go by and I am doing great probably the happiest and healthiest I have been my entire life I had managed to deal with my dreams and they seemed to be less often. I decided to move back into my family home and not long into it I noticed something just wasn't right I wish you could of been there to really know what I went through. While I was gone my cousins had moved in but they lived out back when I lived there the first time I never felt uncomfortable or anything but this time I did I didn't feel alone I felt just an uneasy feeling. I rarely used the front door and always used the side door I don't know why it was just something I did I didn't feel right when I would use the front door. I began not liking the upstairs I didn't like to barely wanted to go up there to shower I felt watched every time I was in the shower I even felt like something tried jumping me one time. I even had to call my cousin to come upstairs to get me because I was to afraid to come out of the bathroom. My cousins thought I was crazy they didn't feel anything. It got to a point where I put a sheet up blocking the stairs because I was to afraid to look up there I felt okay downstairs but after awhile I began feeling it's presence downstairs as well I was laying in my room and I felt like something was walking toward me I hid under my blanket because I was to afraid to look. Eventually I got used to it in a way and I tried not to let it frighten me and i began to pray more. But through all of that it seemed like my life just kept falling apart nothing in my life was going right I lost everything and I began to self medicate. I started opening up to a couple people about the things I was dealing with and they didn't believe me at first. One day my friend came over to install windows in my house I would of never thought he was someone that would sense things if anything I would of thought he was a skeptic I took him upstairs and before we began talking about the windows he said wow I asked him what and he said you definitely are not alone here and that was the first time anyone had ever noticed it other than me.

I began having some health issues started with my skin like a rash or something I ended up being hospitalized for Mrsa.

WHAT IS MRSA?

MRSA causes mild infections on the skin, like sores, boils, or abscesses. But it can also cause more serious skin infections or infect surgical wounds, the bloodstream, the lungs, or the urinary tract. Though most MRSA infections aren't serious, some can be life-threatening.

Since living in the home I had had so many unexplained health issues and trips to the emergency room In my life. On A different day I was talking to a friend of mine about the things in my home he laughed at me he said that stuff wasn't real so I asked him to come upstairs he said okay. Well, when we got upstairs and walked closer to the back rooms he became hesitant and he didn't want to go in I could tell he he never experienced anything like it before he was a little freaked out later that week he came over and convinced me to take pictures up there and I really didn't want to, he begged me to so we did I took about 30 Pictures and they all caught nothing but one you could barley see it but it was there it looked like something long on it's head with a long nose you could kind of see what looked like a skull looking face but you could see through it you could see my clothes behind it in the closet. It was freaking I asked a few people if they seen anything and almost everyone seen it but my mom my grandma who was 83 seen it and she told me I need to move out of that house she thought it was making me sick she said she thought it was something in the dirt I was surprised to hear her say that of all people I never would of thought my grandma believed in that kind of stuff but she swore the house was not good and she told me to move out quite a few times. Up until she passed away a few months ago.

As I've gotten older I have accepted that I am different and I'm not crazy the things I have gone through are real and I'm not the only one who has dealt with these kind of things I think I have a good intuition or something I just know I'm different from other people I really wish I could explain it but maybe with your guys help I will be able to understand myself.

SPECIAL NOTE FROM PAUL: Hannah is definitely a psychic medium. The things that Hannah experiences with vivid dreams, Wish aka Deanna Jaxine Stinson goes through the same thing.

I am almost done with my story sorry for it being so long. I have now moved out of the house but still have been having g health issues and my life still hasn't been going good at all. I was on Pinterest one night looking at tattoos when I randomly came across this photo that had nothing to do with tattoo and I was shocked to see it I didn't know what it was but what I did know was it was what was in my closet in the picture I had taken I looked it up and I began to cry I even woke my boyfriend up out of bed to tell him about it this is what it was.

Note from Paul: This is what Hannah saw:

I truly believe deep in my heart that whatever is in my house made me sick I think it has caused me to have issues in my life and it has affected some people I know and it maybe affecting my cousin who still lives in the home and actually sleeps in the rooms that I refused to go into.

When my grandma got sick from cancer and told me about it that same night I dreamed she passed away on my chest I knew right then that my grandma wasn't going to make it through it a few weeks later she went down hill fast I had spent the night with her and then talked to her on the phone after talking to her on the phone she had went to the hospital then was sent home with hospice I had another dream that she had asked me to dance with her I tipped her back and she gave me the biggest smile ever I told my mom that I needed to see my grandma because she was going to pass away I knew she was I could feel it i can feel things so strongly. That same day my mom called me and told me my grandma oxygen was getting low and that I should go see her I was on my way to her house and 10 mins from her house I get a phone call that she passed away when I got there she was still warm I kissed her and held her until they came to get her I told my grandpa about the dreams I had and he said that my grandma a few days before had told him she was having the craziest dreams and how vivid they were. I believe or maybe like to believe that my grandma was coming to me in my dreams to prepare me for losing her because she knew all I had gone through and I feel she knew I wouldn't do well losing her. I was able to be ok with it well the best I can be I feel it has helped me kind of find my faith again because I had lost it I have went through so much and suffered so much loss that it has all become to much for me to bare at times I don't even know how I am still here and how I deal with everything I have gone through."

Deanna Jaxine Stinson, Psychic Medium

Special Note from Paul:

My assessment. I believe Hannah is a reincarnation of a person that died in the Black Plague. I also believe that Hannah is probably a powerful psychic medium and an entity from medieval times has somehow went through a portal located at Hannah's house and is now tormenting Hannah. That entity is a evil Plague Doctor Phantom. As a psychic medium, Hannah is like a lighthouse and the beam of light from her lighthouse attracts other entities. This Plague Doctor Phantom may have a message to convey to Hannah. I believe the Plague Doctor Phantom is the culprit that gave Hannah MRSA. No matter what, this entity is disrupting Hannah's life and it must be stopped.

Shadow Entity at the Cemetery

INITIAL REPORT:

Date to be there: July 24, 2021 Saturday. Time to be there: 7pm. Contact Person: Hannah Crusse Case # 5K30U650J9184. Location: 42012u6 5th Street, Knights Landing, CA - Activity: Okay this one has a lot of things going on. I don't expect too many people will sign up for this one, it's an hour away from Sacramento. Anyway, there is a Plague Doctor Phantom haunting Hannah, this entity caused her to have rashes. Hannah wrote out her story, it's a long story, see the story here: jazmaonline.boards.net/thread/1788/haunting-knights-landing
If you want to go to this investigation, please let me know, I will have your phone number handy, in case we have an last minute cancellations. With this one, I believe it will be a sure thing. Hannah spent some time writing her story down.

THE OUTLAW BLACK BART IS SEEN AT KNIGHTS LANDING CEMETERY

When I received this initial report as see above. I suddenly realized that Hannah's house is a mere two minutes away from Knights Landing Cemetery. The very same cemetery in which it is reported that Charles E. Boles (The Gentleman Bandit) is buried at, in an unmarked grave. Three locals who don't want to be identified claim that they saw a shadowy entity wearing a bowler hat walking around the cemetery.

Whirling Vortex at the Cemetery

SOME HISTORY ON BLACK BART:

Charles E. Boles aka Black Bart was born in 1829. He died on February 28, 1888. He was a colorful outlaw that was known to write poems and leave the poems at his crime scenes. Among his friends, he was simply known as Charley. With his high class style and sophistication, he was one of the most notorious stagecoach robbers to operate in and around Northern California and southern Oregon during the 1870s and 1880s. When they arrested him, he was sentenced to spend some time at San Quentin Prison.

SOME HISTORY ABOUT KNIGHTS LANDING:

This town was founded in 1843 by Dr. William Knight. Dr. Knight was a practicing physician from Baltimore, Maryland. Yes, the town is named after the good doctor. Dr. Knight built a mound that marked the ancient meeting place of Native Americans that inhabited the regions of Cache Creek and the Sacramento River. The site also became recognized as a steamboat landing area and a place where people from the east and west of the river can meet and talk. They originally wanted to call Knights Landing "Baltimore", but due to some legal issues that popped up, the idea was thrown out the window and Knights Landing stuck. Knights Landing was also known for its ferries. A man and horse could ride a ferry for a buck and a team and wagon cost five dollars. There was once a Southern Pacific Railroad train line that went from Davis to Woodland to Knights Landing and finally to Marysville. That train now only goes to Woodland.

Orb Face at the Cemetery

MY INVESTIGATION OF THE CEMETERY:

March 12, 2013: I went with 3 investigators to this cemetery and we conducted a seance at the cemetery. This is the cemetery that I could have sworn I saw a hand reach out from the grave. I ran to the grave site and there was no hand. Yes, it could have been my imagination, but who knows. During the seance, we tried to make contact with Black Bart. We captured one EVP that said "steadfast". It was a man's disembodied voice. Attached to this story are 3 photos from the cemetery. The first photo is of a shadow entity at the cemetery. The second photo is of what looks like whirling vortexes at the cemetery. And the 3rd picture is of an orb, that looks like it has a face. There are some strange things happening at this cemetery and this may be the reason why Hannah's house is haunted. There possibly could be a vortex from this cemetery to Hannah's home.

Paranormal Hotline Call Entry: April 2, 2021. Time: 1400 Hours.

Follow-up Paranormal Hotline Call Entry: July 15, 2021. Time: 2015 Hours.

Many people of good faith believe that demons are fallen angels. These fallen angels were cast down to Earth, because they dared to question the authority of God. These fallen angels transformed from a being of light to an entity of darkness. Each demon was tasked to promote various acts and sins. Each demon was also connected to a saint that would have the power to counteract the demon's negative actions. For an example, if a family was tormented by Asmodeus, the Demonologist would pray and ask for help from John the Baptist. If the demon was Beelzebub, you would pray for help from St. Francis. During the 16th and 17th century, Demonologists set in motion a hierarchy of demons in order to enable people who perform exorcisms to identify the correct demon and call upon the correct saint to drive out the demon from the person who is possessed. This hierarchy of demons was the opposite of our hierarchy of angels. I for one, believe that some demons may have been fallen angels, while other demons were interdimensional entities.

I received a call on the paranormal hotline on April 2, 2021. The caller named Mark Robinson from Nampa, Idaho is being tormented by what he calls "demonic flies". The story goes that Mark was dating a gothic type girl. Their relationship would last for about a year and a half. Mark discovered that she dabbled in Satanism and caught her trying to conjure up a demon, so she can have the demon do her bidding. Mark being raised as a Christian, was appalled seeing his girlfriend messing around in the dark arts. Mark broke up with his girlfriend. When the break up happened, Mark and his girlfriend argued and the argument ended with Mark being scratched on his arm. His now ex-girlfriend saying that since she has his DNA under her fingertips, he will be cursed.

Mark believes that curse was placed upon him by his ex-girlfriend and that she brought Beelzebub - Lord of the Flies into his life. Beelzebub or Ba'al Zabub is translated as Lord of the Flies. Flies are seen by people as disgusting insects that feed off dead meat and excrement. Flies are seen as pests and any demigod that has the title Lord of the Flies, must be evil, must be demonic. Beelzebub being the Lord of the Flies is also responsible of people getting sick because of their contact with flies. The corresponding saint to counteract Beelzebub is St. Francis.

Mark Robinson says that ever since he broke up with his girlfriend, he has had a series of nightmares. The nightmares that he had are placed in order as he had them. Mark has also recorded the time that he woke up from these nightmares. Here are those nightmares:

1. The Buzz. In this nightmare, Mark keeps hearing a buzzing sound around his ear. The buzzing sound is constant and then gets louder. The sounds are like a multitude of flies flying around his ear. As he tries to swat the flies away, the buzzing just continues and Mark holds his ears, raises up from the bed and screams. Mark realizes that he had a nightmare and is now fully awake, the time is 3:15am and he cannot go back to sleep.
2. The Maggots. Mark dreams that he feels something squirming around on his stomach. What he feels on his stomach is wet and slimy and a multitude of things are moving about on his stomach. Mark turns on the light and sees thousands of maggots moving about on his stomach. His stomach area is all open and his insides are all exposed with maggots on the outside and inside of his stomach. His stomach is in agonizing pain and Mark wakes up to realize that he had a bad dream. The time is 4am.
3. Flies All Over. In this dream, Mark has a couple of flies that land on him. Then a couple more flies lands on him. Then some more and more, until Mark's body and face is covered with flies. Mark again wakes up screaming. The time is 3:15am.

4. Tiny Worms. In this dream, Mark is swatting flies that are landing on his window screen. As the dead flies land on the floor, tiny worms pop out from the bodies of the dead flies. The worms go towards Mark's feet. Before you know it, Mark's feet has all kinds of tiny worms crawling on his feet. When Mark wakes up from this nightmare, it is 3am.

5. Giant Fly. In this dream Mark is being chased by a giant fly. The giant fly is like a bee, it stings Mark. Mark is now in agonizing pain. Mark wakes up and it's 3:15am

6. Flies Infest Car. Mark dreams that he is driving down the road and a zillion flies fly through his air ventilators in his car. Before he knows it, the whole inside of his car is infested with flies. Mark cannot see out the front window and crashes head on into a tree. The time is 3:00 am.

7. Coffin of Maggots. Mark dreams that people think he's dead, but he's not dead, but he is unable to speak or move, to show anyone that he is still alive. He is thrown into a coffin and the coffin is filled with maggots. The time is 3:00 am.

Mark wants these dreams to stop. After Mark explains the story to me, we pray on the phone and ask for Mark's protection against the Lord of the Flies and call upon St. Francis to protect Mark. I also explained to Mark that he should get a full submersion baptism to rid of any impurities that may be connected to his body and soul. I also explained to Mark how to perform a Catholic house blessing on his home using holy water. I also suggested that Mark invite a few people from his church and that they sing spiritual songs and pray throughout the house. This in turn will bring so much positive energy into the home, that anything negative will leave. Mark says that he could feel lightness in the air in his home after his fellow church members sang some spiritual songs in his home. Mark followed all of my instructions and is no longer tormented by nightmares. His paranormal problem has been resolved. Follow up call occurred on July 15, 2021. Mark now lives in peace and is no longer tormented by demonic flies. His former girlfriend is now dating someone else and seems happy and not focused on Mark. Mark believes the curse is lifted.

Paranormal Hotline Call. Date 5/28/2021. Time: 13:08 Hours. The caller who wants to remain anonymous, because of the story he was about to tell, is a story of shame and embarrassment. The name I will give the caller is Mr. Inconsiderate. Mr. Inconsiderate is from Chicago, Illinois. He met a girl at a local grocery market, she lives only 5 blocks from Mr. Inconsiderate. After a few phone calls with this girl, Mr. Inconsiderate asks her to go out for some coffee. She accepts. Mr. Inconsiderate walks over to the girl's house from his home on their date night. Mr. Inconsiderate comes across a street memorial. A young woman got into a severe car accident on a cross street near Mr. Inconsiderate's home. Mr. Inconsiderate spies a new blue teddy bear and a fresh bouquet of black roses. Mr. Inconsiderate looks around, to make sure that no one sees him and takes the blue teddy bear and bouquet of black roses. When he arrives at his date's house, he hands over the teddy bear and roses. The girl is overwhelmed with joy and asks Mr. Inconsiderate..."why black?" She is referring to the roses. Mr. Inconsiderate being a fast thinker, says..."I remember meeting you the first time and you had this cute black t-shirt on. The black compliments your beautiful brown eyes." His date accepts his explanation and they have a wonderful coffee date together, talking for hours.

When Mr. Inconsiderate arrives to his home, he notices a dark shadow dart across his living room floor. When he eventually falls asleep, he is awakened because his bed started shaking. Mr. Inconsiderate tries to fall back to sleep and he then sees in his mind the horrific car crash and a brown haired girl lying dead on her steering wheel, her eyes open and staring back at Mr. Inconsiderate. In the morning all of his cabinets in the kitchen are open. Mr. Inconsiderate starts thinking that perhaps he brought a ghost home from the car accident scene. Mr. Inconsiderate is scared. Later on that evening, Mr. Inconsiderate feels a stinging on his chest. He heads over to the mirror and raises his shirt up to see several scratches on his chest. Three months later, Mr. Inconsiderate has all kinds of terrible things befall him. His mother dies unexpectedly, she dies from a massive cardiac arrest. His father has an aneurysm and is practically a vegetable. Mr. Inconsiderate starts having financial problems and has a hard time paying his rent. Mr. Inconsiderate catches COVID and almost dies. On one particular night, he is choked by an unseen force. It becomes too much for Mr. Inconsiderate and he calls me to tell me that he thinks he is cursed.

Mr. Inconsiderate asks me to help him lift the curse. The first thing I have Mr. Inconsiderate do, is for him to replace the items that he stole from the street memorial. Mr. Inconsiderate purchases another teddy bear and purchases a bouquet of roses and places them at the street memorial. I have him say some prayers at the memorial site and ask for forgiveness. I also pray on the phone with Mr. Inconsiderate and again Mr. Inconsiderate asks for forgiveness. For seven days I had Mr. Inconsiderate go to the street memorial and pray for forgiveness. Mr. Inconsiderate brought a different gift to the site, every day for those 7 days. Mr. Inconsiderate tells me that the curse has been lifted. His father is somewhat coherent again and nothing strange is happening at Mr. Inconsiderate's home. Mr. Inconsiderate promises me that he will never steal from a memorial again. He tells me that he has learned his lesson.

This interview with Mr. Inconsiderate reminds me of my days in high school. I knew two school mates, I will only talk about them using their initials. WR and GP. Both WR and GP would rob graves at the Daly City Chinese Cemetery. The reason being is that they said they would find money and jewelry in the freshly dug graves. They would take the jewelry to the local pawn shop and get money for the stolen jewelry. Both WR and GP were also known to be local burglars. I feel WR and GP both got cursed for being grave robbers. Terrible things happened to both of them and GP is now doing life in San Quentin Prison. GP was a very popular student and athlete and his whole life is ruined as he spends the rest of his life behind bars. It's never a good thing to steal from the dead. I truly believe that you will be cursed if you steal from the dead and the dead will be watching.

Subject: Strange sighting over Sacramento

Hi favorite news team,

This occurred tonight around 1130 to 1145pm, at least that's when I observed it. I'm in the midtown Richmond Grove area, went out to my car on the street and noticed 2 bright blue-linear lights, center sky above downtown. Looking closer, they were created by extremely long beams of light, much like blue laser light. The beams were parallel, stationary, originating from ground somewhere North, North West, in the direction of Beale AFB.

Watched for about 10 minutes, eventually one beam was shut off, disappeared, 5 minutes later the other just went out. Very interesting, they never pivoted left to right, never advanced in length any further than the spot above downtown, probably 20 to 40K feet up.

Enjoying your programming, keep up the great work.

David Garllinger

A POSSIBLE EXPLANATION:

What David could have seen is explained right here in this article, see link: www.gazettelive.co.uk/news/teesside-news/you-see-pillar-blue-light-15379790 -- Another possibility is that Beale AFB was testing out one of the super lasers from the Lawrence Livermore Labs. I do not believe this is extraterrestrial in nature.

Question: Hello Buster, thank you for doing this interview. Can you tell me why your book First Contact - 02/2022 is coming out now? Why didn't it come out 5 years ago, or 10 years ago? Why now?

Answer: I tried social media first; however, I wanted to write & publish the book 4 years ago. It seemed one thing after another kept interfering with that process. Finally, it has been completed and my take on it was not supposed to happen until now.

Question: Did you learn from the aliens themselves that they were going to make first contact with us in 02/2022?

Answer: Yes, I can ask questions and my answers are given with clues I put the clues together and get my answer.

Question: There are a variety of aliens from the Reptilians to the Anunnaki to the Grays to the Nordic and many, many more. Which aliens are going to make contact with us? Or are ALL of the variety of aliens going to make contact with us?

Answer: The original ones that protect me and us and that have brought us up to this point, also watchers from other planets.

Question: Not to give away any spoilers, but when you lived on the Air Force Base, what was some of the high strangeness did you observe? What makes you feel that the phenomena that you witnessed was of an extraterrestrial in nature?

Answer: I was young, not real sure what I was seeing, but it was enough to add to my wonderment.

Question: What Air Force Bases did you live at? Did other military personnel observe high strangeness at these bases?

Answer: Otis AFB on Cape Cod, Mass. McClellan AFB North Highlands. I didn't talk much to people about it except my dad.

Special Side Note from Paul Dale Roberts: As a paranormal investigator, I have investigated McClellan AFB in North Highlands and Beale AFB. I had reports from both bases that there was ghostly activity going on and also UFO sightings at both bases.

Question: What is the agenda of the aliens? Will they merely live among us and let themselves be known, or will they have other plans for mankind?

Answer: To welcome us to the Galactic community, as they have with other planets that have reached our level of knowledge and technology.

Question. Are the aliens making first contact, because we are destroying our environment? Are they going to stop the destruction of Brazil's rain forest or the forest in Siberia? Are they going to reverse climate change?

Answer: To help us evolve into a more caring society, and teach us to not be such a warring faction.

Question: What if nothing happens on 02/2022? Would you believe that you were mis-lead?

Answer: I have no doubt it will happen; my life has been set up for this occasion. As the book explains.

Question: If an extraterrestrial race of beings is going to make first contact with us, why hasn't the military attempted to stop your book?

Answer: They know about me and have no more control over what happens. This is supposed to happen at this time.

Question: With the release of the Tik Tok video, is the military preparing us for this first contact?

Answer: Yes, they know if you can't beat them join them.

Question: How would I be able to purchase this book?

Answer: Amazon, Barnes and Noble and iUniverse.

Question: Thank you Buster for this interview, is there anything you would like to add?

Answer This is going to be wonderful time in the history of mankind, in our lifetime. WOW, I for one can't wait. I know I'm not alone.

BAKERSFIELD CALL:

8/4/2021. Time: 4:30pm - Received a call on my paranormal hotline. A lady named Hilda in Bakersfield, claims she has security footage of an entity walking through her front door and also has security footage of 2 men ghosts talking in her back yard. As she was telling me the story, she was crying and seemed hysterical, because she could not believe what she was seeing. Referred her to a paranormal group in her area, also I told her how she can bless her home. Case #6B61H374Y8558.

JOHNNY NASH SIGHTING:

4/2/2021. Time: 2:35pm - Received a call on my paranormal hotline. A lady, who does not want to be identified makes claim that she was visited by the ghost of Johnny Nash. Who is Johnny Nash? According to Wikipedia: Johnny Nash was an American singer and songwriter. Nash's 1972 reggae-influenced single "I Can See Clearly Now" sold over one million copies, and was awarded a gold disc by the R.I.A.A. in November 1972. "I Can See Clearly Now" reached No. 1 on the Billboard Hot 100 on November 4, 1972, and remained atop the chart for four weeks, spending the same four weeks atop the adult contemporary chart. The "I Can See Clearly Now" album includes four original Marley compositions published by JAD: "Guava Jelly", "Comma Comma", "You Poured Sugar on Me", and the follow-up hit "Stir It Up". "There Are More Questions Than Answers" was a third hit single taken from the album." Going back to the phone call. Lady M as I will call the caller is from Texas. She claims that her fiancée canceled her wedding and broke up with her. Lady M was also in financial trouble. There were some other issues that were going on and Lady M was feeling depressed and contemplated suicide. Lady M had the radio on and the song "I Can See Clearly Now" came on. After having her head down and crying, a light from her door way struck her. The light was brilliant and she could see a glowing being inside the light. From the light, an African American man stepped out and placed his hand on Lady M's shoulder. The African American man told her that she had nothing to worry about, life was going to get better. The African American man started singing "I Can See Clearly Now". He had an angelic voice and pointed to the window, to show Lady M that beautiful blue sky outside. The light faded and the African American man was gone. About a month later Lady M was offered a new job, making twice the money she had with a previous employer. Lady M said there was light at the end of the tunnel. Lady M met another man, who would actually treat her with dignity and respect. They fell in love. Lady M researched the song "I Can See Clearly Now" and discovered it was sang by Johnny Nash. Lady M says that the African American Man who came from the light was no other than a young Johnny Nash. Johnny Nash had visited her and came as an angel. Lady M on the phone was very escatic to tell me that Johnny Nash helped her get through her crisis and that Johnny Nash is truly an angel. Here is the song: I Can See Clearly Now, by Johnny Nash.

Update: After my dog Hannah died, my other dog named Story was sad and lonely. We recently got another dog, a Yorkchi (1/2 Chihuahua 1/2 Yorkshire Terrier), his name is Champagne. This article is dedicated to Champagne. The photos are our latest photos of Champagne.

Ever once in a while, I am a guest speaker here and there. I will find ghost hunters in my audience and one of the questions that I ask is...how many people here know what a "living ghost" is? It always seems like no one knows. In this article, I will explain what a living ghost is and tell you about a recent investigation that we had that dealt with a "living ghost". HPI (Halo Paranormal Investigations) received a call in which the occupants of a home in Sacramento keep seeing an old man using a walker falling down and hitting his head on a side table. The old man then fades away. The occupants of this house has seen the apparition of the old man 3 different times and it usually happens around 5pm. When I went to this home, I hung around and waited for 5pm to come. When 5pm came, there was no apparition of an old man with a walker. Nor was I able to obtain any kind of evidence, EVPs, etc.

So what do I think happened here? I discover that the occupants have lived here for 5 years and the occupants before them was an old man with a walker and his wife. The old man with the walker is their uncle, who has given them the house and he has moved away to a rest home. Their uncle is very much alive. The occupants make claim that the apparition that they see does look like their uncle. This doppelganger is an example of a living ghost. The residual energy is so strong that ever so often it repeats itself. It was a traumatic event when their uncle fell and hit his head on the table. In fact on the day that he did that, they had to call an ambulance, he had a mild concussion. The event itself released so much negative energy into the atmosphere, that the incident replays over and over again. When the energy is at its peak, the new occupants are able to see the event play out.

A similar incident like this happened in Chicago, Illinois. Year: 1974. A couple moves into the neighborhood and the house they moved in seems to be haunted, because at 2am, they see an apparition of a man walking over to the couch and an apparition of a woman appears. The man when confronting the woman, starts slapping her and then they both dissipate and vanish. The couple that moved into this home, has seen this incident 4 times. On one particular day, they are invited to the neighborhood block party. The host of the party tells them that they have a block party every Labor Day, it's a tradition. The host invites the couple to thumb through his photo albums of past events of this block party. As the woman thumbs through one photo album she is shocked and surprised to see the couple that manifest in her home. She yells out..."these are the ghosts in my house!" The host looks at the photo and says..."they are not ghosts, both people are alive. They had domestic disputes, the police have been to the house a few times. They got a divorce, the woman lives 5 blocks down the road and the husband moved out of state, they are very much alive."

This is an example of "living ghosts". The negative energy released into this home replays itself over and over again. Very strong negative residual energy. You do not have to be dead to be a ghost. There is another example of a politician giving his first speech on a street corner in the 1800s. He was very nervous and did not like speaking in front of large crowd. This nervous energy was released into the atmosphere and people to this day in Seattle, Washington claim they see a man in a black suit, standing on a soap box and acting like he is talking to a crowd of people. Then he vanishes.

In Sacramento, another case of "living ghosts". At a costume shop called Evangelines, on the 3rd floor late at night, you can hear people laughing and talking, you can hear old 70s disco music, you can hear the shuffling of feet. When you go up to the 3rd floor, there is no one there. Back in the 70s, the 3rd floor was a nightclub called D.O. Mills and people would have fun and dance. This is the strong positive residual energy that has impacted the atmosphere and replays itself over and over again. Another case of "living ghosts". One of those living ghosts on the 3rd floor could be me, because I was very heavy into the disco scene in the 70s and at times would party at D.O. Mills.

Special Note: In Japan, they also believe in "living ghosts", but there interpretation is somewhat different. Ikiryō ( , lit. "living ghost"), also known as shōryō ( ), seirei ( ), or ikisudama ( ),[1] is a disembodied spirit in Japanese popular belief and fiction that leaves the body of a living person and subsequently haunts other people or places, sometimes across great distances. The term(s) are used in contrast to shiryō, which refers to the spirit of those who are already deceased.

Subject: UFO Sighting – Woodland

Hello,

Below are attached the original and slow motion version of a UFO sighting that I firsthand witnessed in Woodland California on 8/9/21 that occurred at 9pm. The object was a bright orange, spherical orb hovering in the sky. I accidentally stopped recording and when I looked back up, the object abruptly vanished.

This was not a star. Not a moon. Not a planet. Please review the video carefully and observe the bizarre shapes and motions it manifests.

My sister Sharon and her ex-first husband Mike lived on Santorini Island for 5 years. Mike was a certified scuba diver for an archaeology team. This later inspired my sister Sharon to become a certified scuba diver when she eventually moved to Florida. While living on Santorini Island, an island that some theorize could be part of Atlantis, Sharon and Mike had the opportunity to visit Athens, Greece; Sicily; Rome, Italy and the mysterious island of Malta. Sharon describes Santorini Island as paradise on Earth.

MALTA SHE-DEVIL

Thomas Atkinson from Devon, England says that he visited Malta in 1982 with his wife. While exploring some of the underground dwellings, his wife was pushed by an invisible force and scratched across her chest. Thomas and his wife saw a hideous ghostly image of a woman, who was hissing at them. As they watched this ghost, this demon, it simply faded away into nothingness. Guillaume Laurent of Marseille, France was visiting Malta in 2002. While he and his buddy Marcus was exploring the underground complexes, they came upon a woman standing alone, facing a wall. The woman sounded like she was crying. Guillaume went up to the woman to see if anything was wrong. The woman turned around quickly and placed a sword underneath Guillaume's throat. The woman then laughed and vanished before their eyes. Guillaume asked a few locals about this strange demon creature and one local called the entity the Malta She-Devil. Guillaume is positive that the Malta She-Devil is some sort of demon that roams the underground of Malta. Special Note: HPI Forensic Artist William Carlisle drew the above shown drawing of the Malta She-Devil.

MALTA'S ANCIENT ALIEN THEORY:

The mysterious Mediterranean island of Malta lies south of Sicily and is home to megalithic structures built by a mysterious prehistoric society. Some ancient astronaut theorists believe that an intellectually advanced race of extraterrestrials created these magnificent underground structures and the structures seen above ground. According to various archaeologists and scientists, these massive blocks even pre-date the Great Pyramid of Giza. Just who were the people that built these sophisticated structures? Local folklore describes Malta as being the home of giants and the legendary one-eyed creature known as Cyclops. These massive stone structures are credited to the Nephilim, the fallen ones. Looking at these structures, one can only conclude that only an advanced race of people could have made these structures. Even now in modern times, we would have an incredible hard time duplicating the complexity of these structures. Ancient Astronaut theorist Giorgio Tsoukalos when investigating Malta, looked at these giant stone structures, unexplained rock carvings and mysterious elongated skulls. Giorgio sees only one direction for these incredible finds. There has to be an extraterrestrial connection. All of the legends of Malta, explain that an advanced race of giants created all of these structures. I tend to believe in Malta's legends. There is always a foundation of truth to all legends and myths. There just can't be any other explanation for how these megalithic structures were built. My sister Sharon would tell you that these structures would take your breath away.

INFORMATION FROM THE NET:

"Archaeological evidence suggests that around 4,000 BCE, the people of Malta and Gozo began building with the purpose of ritualizing life and death. The Hal Saflieni Hypogeum, one of the first and most famous of such complexes, is an underground network of alcoves and corridors carved into soft Globigerina limestone just three miles from what is now the capital city of Valletta. The builders expanded existing caves and over the centuries excavated deeper, creating a temple, cemetery and funeral hall that would be used throughout the Żebbuġ, Ġgantija and Tarxien periods. Over the next 1,500 years, known as the Temple Period, above-ground megalith structures cropped up throughout the archipelago, many with features that mirror their subterranean counterparts.

Whatever remained of the above-ground megalithic enclosure that once marked the Hypogeum's entrance was destroyed by industrialization during the late 1800s. Now, visitors enter through a modernized lobby, then descend a railed walkway and move chronologically through two of the site's three tiers, glimpsing along the way evidence of the structure's dual role as worship and burial place."

Below is a report I received by email from Matteo Palmier. Matteo does not tell us about a story about The Nephilim or a story about a she-devil. He tells us a ghost story and this ghost named the Blue Dolphin House Specter still haunts the island of Malta today. Below is Matteo's story.....

MATTEO PALMIER IN HIS OWN WORDS SAYS:

The Blue Dolphin House: Malta Ghost Story

"It was during the time of the British rule in Malta when two drunken sailors were walking along the streets of Valetta, when upon reaching City Gate, they were accosted by a beautiful woman wearing the traditional Maltese costume, the ghonnella. She asked them if they could accompany her home. Even though they didn't feel like walking much, they partially consented because they felt fascinated by the beautiful lady. They followed her and when they reached the house in St Ursola Street, she asked them if they could help her inside as she had left the key inside.

The soldiers were bewildered by such a request but nonetheless decided to help out the mysterious lady. After some time one of the naval men managed to clamber inside where he found the key. When he managed to open the door for the lady and his friend, the lady took off her ghonnella to reveal beautiful black locks. When she started to light the house, the splendor and richness of the house left them gaping. Now that they were in the company of a beautiful lady and in a magnificent setting, they felt more relaxed. However, as time drew nigh, they felt more weary and left the house. One of the sailors realized he had left a very expensive silver cigarette case inside the house and they decided they would call again on the morrow to get it. The next day they were shocked to find the same house in a very dilapidated state. They were told by one of the neighbors that the house was said to be haunted and that sometimes they could see the house lit from outside.

This house is still abandoned in St. Ursula Street In Valletta, Malta and when you pass at night you feel the chill, coldness and even if you are lucky you can also see the light, since it is still haunted and if you have the guts you can take a peek inside one of the windows still present!

You have the picture of the house attached ..... this is real and in Malta many people know this story."

The daughter feels there is an entity lurking in her bedroom. Who's Going? Deanna Jaxine Stinson aka Wish - Psychic Medium. Deanna will conduct a metaphysical cleansing. I will conduct a Roman Catholic House Blessing.

INTERVIEW WITH REBECCA'S DAUGHTER:

Rebecca's daughter says that the old home they used to live in had some negative energy. Things would get moved in the house, like napkin rolls, paper towel rolls, etc. Scratching sounds were heard in the cupboards. Knocking noises were heard in and around the refrigerator. Rebecca's daughter had one out-of-body experience (astral projection). From what she says in the interview, it appears that her astral projection adventure left her in the spiritual realm. She had weird dreams afterwards. In one dream, she dreams that she is at the old house, the door opens by itself and she sees a dark figure in the doorway. She had several nightmares. In one dream she sees colorful shapes in the sky and they morph into various other shapes. In another dream, she feels like she is walking into another dimension. One of her strangest dreams, she dreams that she is astral projecting out of her body and enters her friend's body and makes her friend's body raise up from bed.

WHAT DEANNA SEES:

As Deanna walked around the pool area, she felt some negative energy at the pool. She feels that there is a person that is afraid of the pool, afraid of drowning. The house was built in 1990, so Deanna may have picked up on a previous owner that had fears of drowning or being injured at the pool. Deanna also saw an imp like entity in one of the bedrooms. When I started my cleansing, Deanna saw a quick flash of light depart from one of the bedrooms. Special Note: Deanna conducted a metaphysical cleansing and I conducted a Roman Catholic House Blessing. Rebecca said that it felt lighter, after the cleansing.

Special Note: The two drawings placed in this article, were created by my daughter IlliAnna Vega. The hummingbird can represent spiritual freedom, while her other drawing may represent the bonding to a higher self.

When I was in the Army and stationed in Germany. I took a nice boat ride on Lake Constance, which is surrounded by 3 countries, they are Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Switzerland is such a magical and mysterious place. In 2003, the first sighting of Le Loyon took place. I became fascinated about the legend of Le Loyon. Cryptozoologists have classified this entity as a cryptid, but is it really a cryptid or something else? Le Loyon is a bipedal humanoid. This entity has been sighted near the town of Maules. The odd thing about this entity is that it is a tall creature, some say as tall as 6 feet, 2 inches and it hangs out in the woods. Witnesses have said it wears a gimp suit and a gas mask that completely covers its face. So the question remains, is this a cryptid? Or is it a ghost?

In some sightings by witnesses, they describe Le Loyon as looking human, dressed in a boiler suit, wearing an odd looking cloak and having a gas mask covering his face. There is a photograph of Le Loyon floating around on the Internet. This photo has not been debunked and people are not sure if the photograph is some kind of hoax. Special Note: See photo at the top of this article.

The townfolk of Maules are terrified of Le Loyon and the police got involved and started searching for this elusive entity. This entity walks the same route in the woods every day for a decade and is said to stalk the town of Maules. What I can't understand is if this entity has been walking the same path every day for a decade, then why didn't they place game cams on the trees, so we can have a multitude of pictures of Le Loyon? Why didn't the hunters hide out in the thickets along this path, to confront this entity? If this was Bigfoot and if he was walking the same path every day for a decade, I can guarantee that every cryptologists and Bigfoot hunter would be hiding out on that path, ready to pounce on Bigfoot.

The person who photographed Le Loyon named Le Matin says he came across Le Loyon in the marsh. He claims he was only a few feet away when the photo was taken. Le Matin says he was wearing a military cape, boots and an Army gas mask. The outfit that Le Loyon was wearing seemed to be dated, perhaps attire from World War II. Ellias Reitnauer from Lucerne, Switzerland says that he also encountered Le Loyon in 2009 and that when he watched Le Loyon walk away, he faded out like a ghost. Ellias believes that Le Loyon is a ghost from World War II and not a cryptid.

Le Loyon has also been seen clutching a bunch of flowers. Marianne Descloux who lives in the area says she witnessed the entity and he wore a cap, dark cloak and gas mask. Some locals believe that Le Loyon took his own life. They said they found his clothes in the woods and a note that read: "The risk of a hunt for the beast". Some people theorize that more publicity that Le Loyon would receive, he would be captured. No body was ever found and no one knows what Le Loyon truly looks like. Le Loyon also blames Le Matin for exposing him with the photograph. Le Loyon describes his walks as "happiness therapy". Since no body has ever been found, did Le Loyon go into hiding? Also, please note Le Loyon makes fun of the reader for not knowing the works of Sacher-Masoch. Special Note: The word Masochism came from the name Sacher-Masoch. Masochism is defined as 'sexual enjoyment derived from suffering. The author Sacher-Masoch writings dealt with this sexual disorder. Perhaps Le Loyon had the same disorder and wore the gas mask to hinder his breathing, causing suffering and wore the strange garb to cause displeasure in his walks. Most people when walking in the woods, would like to dress comfortably. Most people would wear shorts, t-shirt, tennis shoes for a nice hike. Wearing a gimp suit, cloak, cap and gas mask would be very uncomfortable for a hike in the woods. The pain in this would most likely be the "happiness therapy" that Le Loyon is seeking. The clutching of flowers is probably for a lost love that he yearns for.

My theory is that Le Loyon is a real person, wearing his father's World War II garb. Le Loyon is probably into masochism and some time in his life, he was rejected by the love of his life. To counteract the pain from his lost love, he would walk on that familiar trail in his strange garb. I don't believe he committed suicide and that he is merely in hiding and has ended his charade as Le Loyon. As Le Loyon being a ghost, I believe Ellias only thought he had vanished, due to the conditions of his visual observation.

EXPLANATION OF THE STAR WARS DRAWING:

C-3PO and R2-D2 with The Demon Warrior aka Paul Dale Roberts and Iconic aka Richard Vasseur. Crossover drawing by Richard Vasseur. The Demon Warrior and Iconic were summoned to the Star Wars Universe to battle a worm like cosmic parasite that eats energy. C-3PO and R2-D2 brought the Demon Warrior and Iconic into their universe via a wormhole. When the parasites were destroyed, the Demon Warrior and Iconic were sent back to their own reality. Mission accomplished.

Getting terribly lost in San Francisco is a nightmare. I don't know the city- and as a tourist I feel it's my right to bother people and ask for directions. Just so you know I have even gotten lost in Golden Gate Park. I just want to make it perfectly clear that I don't know anything meaningful about Golden Gate Park or San Francisco. Among the thirty or so people that came to the Stow Lake investigation I was unknown. I am going through great pains to tell you that there is no way that I could have gotten unconsciously swayed by prior knowledge as to the many paranormal reports of the park. We broke off into four groups and by luck the leader of my group was Tommy Netzbund, he is the founder of the San Francisco Ghost Society and guide of the Haunted Haight walking tour.

Tommy had mentioned there is a "Woman of the lake" ghost story, standard fare that made the ghost-story more unbelievable to me. Tommy himself cackled, "What make-out spot near a lake doesn't have a ghost story to it?" With an open heart, skeptical mind and grain of salt I casted myself as the central intuitive of the group, preparing myself to disappoint them all with no dramatic or unusual reports at all, and off we rambled on to the trail surrounding the park.

Woman of the Lake by Illianna Vega (my daughter)

When there are entities that I need to interface with, I have almost a channeling style. I allow that spirit to directly show me in mental pictures what is important to them and to speak and act through me, however, I don't subscribe to receding your own control or dominance within your body, and so the interaction is quite intense and also controlled. As the night wore on this fact became very important to our groups investigation.

*Hot spot 1

Right away I began to absorb emotion and information, so someone really needed to communicate. What was apparent was her sadness and connection to the water. We filed ahead- Tommy, me, Shonna and Marcus. At a point of high sensation Shonna walked close to me and reported dizziness. Then EMF showed nothing unusual. A little further down the path as Shonna and I talked about what had just happened, Tommy took another EMF reading. Starting at a normal range then plummeting to a flat 0, and wildly jumping to 4.

*Hot spot 2

It was time for EVP recording, feeling very drawn to the lake I turned my back on the group and walked closer. We all asked questions and left 10 seconds between each one. Tommy asked what the entities name was. I came up with an M or Melissa. He told me that he had come up with Mary. We continued to walk and had some more fluctuations with the EMF, and picked up more electronic anomalies.

*Hot Spot 3

We were close to the trail that led up the side of strawberry hill. And over the first/second step of the trail I saw one pinprick of red light that showed itself then disappeared. I reported this after making sure that nothing normal could have accounted for the light. The light seemed to prompt me to walk up the steps. However, I got a specific negative intention from the entity and knew that the entity could harm me through infestation of its negativity, after informing my group of all I told them they should go and investigate without me if they could do this safely with him.

After they decided to go up I felt guilty for remaining below and joined them on the steps. At this point I saw another pin point of red light over the landing and told them that this was a prompt for them to ascend there as well. They went up and I walked down the steps, feeling dizzy and sensing the spirit would have like me to fall down the steps.

Another group arrived and we caught up on each other's experiences. I then told the leader of that group how the spirit was very negative and wished to harm me and whoever else he could, and again felt my guilt for letting them go up there while I stayed away. At this point I told the other groups leader that I thought I could go up there without getting hurt. And I found Tommy's group working with their equipment. I immediately felt a center of energy not far from where they were. I told Tommy that though it might seem more likely that in life there was violence leading left up the steps, yet I felt certain the violent act had happened by a large conifer on a steep and tangled slope to the right. He told me that it was interesting I said that because just before I had gotten up there he told the group that very thing.

The Lady of Stow Lake by Illianna Vega - (my daughter).

*Hot spot 4

Beyond the pier overlooking the lake I spotted an amorphous mist that was roughly oblong and nine feet high. At a different time, close to the boats, I saw a basket ball shaped light that was blue and white. As I tried to explain to Tommy where the location of the light was, we used his laser pen. It continually “bounced” off the area in which I had seen the light. The laser malfunctioned dramatically when I attempted to use it. At times only flickering or not activating at all.

My Assessment of the Stow lake area

This area has convinced me it has active and latent haunting. The evidence was three pronged, intuitive/personal accounts, unusual electronic readings/malfunctions and cross corroboration of investigators revealing a pattern of certain repeatable aspects of activity within it. However, the majority of these hauntings are in hypo-stasis, not seeking, or able to contact. Only a few beings there are interested in contact. There are two beings (feminine and male) that reside at strawberry hill.

I believe that specific area where the violence took place is an energy earth-gate of moderate concentration. It is hosted by a specific earth energy/entity. The violence there has caused a disturbance of the energy. To The haunted activity is a request for the living to minimize or change the negative being then to doctor the energy and help resanctify this area. This would do a tremendous favor in restoring the equilibrium of the area. And restore the important natural earth energy ‘gate’.

There were two or three beings at the lake itself that were in active haunting. The one with whom I had communicated the most with was of woman ‘M’. The other being(s) was in a para-active state, not seeking contact and interaction. M herself, was not very interested in moving-on or progressing. She is preoccupied with reliving the sadness of her life and wanting the living to also understand what she has been through. Ritually, leaving her flowers and messages of spiritual progression would be indicated. Carefully introducing her to the fact that her baby is in ‘heaven’ and no longer in the lake may help, but for the ceremonial participants sake this should be done with care and reverence for her.

Finally, there is tremendous energy there, and much of it is the living visitors own emotionality which is feeding or coalescing the native energy and the beings themselves. Because of the energy problems on strawberry hill there is certain morbidity to the park, but with expert ceremony to normalize it, the natural earth energy and earth entity will contain and care for the overlaying hauntings themselves.

PARANORMAL HOTLINE CALL

Date of call: 8/27/2021. Time of call: 8:38pm. Name of caller: Ashley. Case #87P0Z331R529S9. Ashley from Arkansas called. Since the age of 15 she had the gift of premonition. Lately she has been concerned about her premonitions. Her premonitions are about death. Recently she had a dream in which she encountered her deceased grandmother. When she awoke from the dream, she was drenched in sweat. Shortly after, her father was diagnosed with cancer as warned to her by her deceased grandmother. In her dream like state of mind, she sees spiritual animals like crows and owls. During her dream state she will also astral project. Another unusual aspect of her life is that on a nightly basis, a UFO that is multicolored will be stationed outside watching her. Her neighbor has also seen the UFO. Ashley wants to get in contact with other people that have the gift of premonition.

Painting from Ecuador

I used to enjoy going to my family reunions or family get-togethers. I have some very interesting family members, but instead of talking about each family member, I will tell you about two uncles, both are deceased. The first uncle I will talk about is my uncle Manuel "Manny" Ayala. Manny was a former CHP (California Highway Patrol), his sister Josie Hodson is a retired CHP Radio Dispatcher. Manny's nephew Robert Crain is a retired CHP and now is a private investigator and CEO for his own company called Arcy Professional Investigations, Inc. Josie's ex-husband Larry Hodson is a retired Oakland police officer. Uncle Manny Ayala retired early from CHP, when he got run over by a drunk driver. When he finally recovered, one leg was shorter than the other. After his recovery, he worked at the Fairfield Truck Weigh Station and I would drive through the weigh station and greet my uncle. One of the stories that my uncle would tell is how he pulled over Charles Manson, who was driving towards Los Angeles in a beat up van. He pulled over Charlie Manson for reckless driving and gave him a ticket. Uncle Manny was a Vietnam vet and I will never forget his unforgettable stories of his days with CHP. Before Manny passed away, he was a farmer in Utah.

My other colorful uncle was Jose "Joe" Causing. Jose is a Vietnam vet, 82nd Airborne, Merchant Marine and jazz drummer. He was also a Gung Fu Master/Instructor in the 12th degree, who learned Gung Fu from Bruce Lee's Martial Arts Schools. Note: Jose attended Bruce Lee's funeral in Seattle, Washington. Jose drove an old gray Cadillac with the license plate # Gung Fu. As a Merchant Marine, Jose traveled the world. He was an international traveler. As a young boy, I was fascinated with the paranormal and I would always have my uncle seek out paranormal stories from the countries and territories that he visited. When he visited Peru, Ecuador and Columbia as a Merchant Marine, here are some of the paranormal stories he related to me:

Peru:

When Jose visited Peru, he was floored at all of the stories he heard about this country. Jose talked with Jesus Munoz. Jesus says that he was surfing in 1977 and came upon a huge turtle that bumped his board and knocked him into the waves. Jesus says the turtle had to be about 150 feet, with a width of 20 feet. Jesus could not believe on what he saw and told his family members and friends. One of his friends told him, that he saw the Sachamama. This is a cryptid that is seen in the ocean regions of Peru. A Sachamama is a giant turtle and has two pairs of snail-like feelers at the base and the tip of the snout. Jesus told Jose that he stopped surfing for 2 years, after he had the incident with Sachamama.

Painting from Peru.

Luciana Suarez, a native of Peru says that when she lived with her parents, her home was very haunted. Cabinets would open on their own. There was times when her mother and Luciana were pushed by an unseen force. Her mother experienced the entity grabbing the back of her hair and pushing her head into a wall. Luciana said that they were too poor to move away. Then one day Luciana's father noticed that part of the floor boards seemed to be rotted out and the wood was raised above the other flooring panels. When Luciana's father removed the rotted floor panels, he came upon a burlap bag. Inside the bag were human bones. There was a skull, ribs and one leg bone. Other bones were missing. Luciana took the bones to a nearby cemetery and buried the bones. He said a prayer over the bones and threw holy water upon the makeshift grave. After this was done, the haunting of their home stopped. Luciana believes that the bones belonged to the family that once lived in their home and was probably a relative. There are many, many ghost stories in Peru. Peru is very rich in culture and history, so it would seem natural for a country like Peru to have so many ghost stories.

Also, archaeologists have a field day in the story of giants that once inhabited this land. The giants were so tall, that a 6 foot man would only reach the knee cap of a giant. The giants were known to raid villages and devour the farm animals and they were also known to eat humans. Besides the giants, you had alien elongated skulls. In 1928, author and researcher Brian Foerster talked about the bizarre elongated alien skulls. Were the inhabitants at the time trying to mimic extraterrestrials that lived in Peru, by stretching their skulls to look like them? Or do the elongated skulls carry the DNA of humans and an alien species, a hybrid race? Were the giants the fallen ones...the Nephilim as mentioned in the Bible? Peru has many mysteries and I can't wait when the day comes that some of these questions can be answered.

California Opossum (related to the Amazon Opossum)

Ecuador

Just like Peru, there is evidence that giants once roamed the land of Ecuador. Jose says there are stories of UFOs seen in the Andes and cryptids called "Stick Men" seen crossing paths in the Ecuador Amazon. From the way Jose described the cryptids, it almost sounds like the Fresno Nightcrawlers that you hear about today. Also, there have been reports of hikers who have encountered Amazon Opossums and as they watch the opossums walk along the tree branches, some will fade away, as if they are ghosts.

Columbia

Felipe Iglesias told Jose that he was taking care of his sick aunt in her home and when his aunt went to sleep, he went into the broom closet to retrieve the broom and start sweeping around the house. When he was finished, he placed the broom back into the closet. As Felipe was walking away, the broom closet opened and the broom smacked him right in the back of the head. Felipe believes it was his cousin Juan Pablo who died in the house. His cousin died of untreated bronchitis. Felipe believes his cousin did not mean any harm for hitting him in the head with the broom. Felipe believes his cousin was trying to let him know, that he is still around. Columbia is just like Peru and has many, many ghost stories, this is just one ghost story out of thousands of ghost stories in Columbia. Just recently through his Facebook profile, the mayor of Armenia, Jose Manuel Ríos Morales, said that at approximately 11:29 p.m. on Monday, August 2, a security guard suffered a "paranormal attack" in a Colombia. There is a video of the attack and it shows the security guard as he hits the wall. It actually looks like he was violently pushed by an unseen force.

POW Camp

From 1973 to 1976, I was in the US Army. From 1979 to 1986, I again was in the US Army, I had a 3 year break from 1976 to 1979. I took my basic training at Fort Ord, California. What I remember about Fort Ord is running in the sand and ice plant. I am a Vietnam Era Vet. I never went to Vietnam, but I joined the Army during the time they were taking soldiers out of Vietnam. During my basic training, I had to attend POW Camp. The Army tried to make the POW camp as realistic as possible. Our main goal was to escape from the camp. Our drill sergeants captured us and at times we were handcuffed. On a rainy night, they threw our chicken and rice in the mud and if we wanted to eat, we had to eat the chicken and rice from the ground. Some soldiers wouldn't do it. I did it, there was no way I was going to go hungry. In fact during basic training, we at times had to eat our breakfast within 5 minutes. I never had any problems gobbling my breakfast down in 5 minutes, while other soldiers were not able to do that. Another thing that they did in POW camp was place us in a coffin and start throwing dirt over the coffin. I remember one soldier crying for his mother. Of course that soldier did not pass POW camp. When I was thrown in the coffin, I basically fell asleep. During POW camp, I found an opportunity to escape with another soldier. We both escaped and waited at the barracks for the drill sergeants to return. The drill sergeants congratulated us. Special Note: During POW camp, we also learned on what bugs we could eat and what plants were edible.

Bivouac

During Bivouac, we had long marches. We would sing cadence songs like:

1. She's a lady in black, she makes her living on her back. She's a lady in black, she makes her living on her back...whoaa, whoaa, whoaa, whoaa....whoa, whoa. whoa, whoa. The drill sergeant can keep up with the song, by rhyming colors to certain words. Example: pink=stink; white=tight; yellow=mellow; red=bed, etc.

2. Two old ladies laying in bed and one rolled over and the other one said..."I want to be an airborne ranger, I want to live a life of danger, I want to go to Vietnam, I want to kill a Charlie Chan...

3. They say that in the Army, the chow is mighty fine, a chicken rolled off the table and killed a friend of mine, oh lord, I want to go, but they won't let me go home, home..home.

They say that in the Army, the women are mighty fine, they look like Phyllis Diller and walk like Frankenstein.....

They say that in the Army, the pay is mighty fine, they give you a hundred dollars and take back 99.....

4. Count cadence, delayed cadence, count cadence count. 1...can't hear you. 2. Getting louder. 3.

Much better. 4. Definitely better. Hit it...1, hit it 2, hit it 3..hit it, 1, 2, 3, 4....1,2,3,4....1,2,3,4....

Special Note: When the numbers are yelled out, it's yelled out by the battalion. The person saying "can't hear you"..is the drill sergeant.

During Bivouac, there was a fat soldier that would fall out of our jogging formation and one time, he fell out and like a bowling pin, knocked down 4 other soldiers. Yes, he was like a bowling pin knocking down other bowling pins. The drill sergeant got so sick of him, he made the soldier wallow in the mud like a pig and made him make pig sounds while rolling in the mud. This fat soldier got kicked out of basic training and before he left, the other soldiers gave him a blanket party. There was blood on the walls and poles.

General George S. Patton Jr.

When I was in Fort Hood, Texas - 2nd Armored Division - Hell on Wheels. I was standing in formation and General Patton, Jr was inspecting the troops and when he got to me, he looked at my boots and they were smeared and he said to me..."looks like you polished your boots with a Hershey bar".

When I went on Bivouac at Fort Hood, I got bitten by a brown recluse spider. My hand swelled up and I was taken to Fort Hood's hospital. General Patton was making his rounds and I begged the doctor to release me, I didn't want to get slapped by the General for having a spider bite. I remember what his father did to that soldier in Germany for having an anxiety attack. I was released, before the General came up to my bed side. The General also had a son-in-law that they called the Bionic Colonel and he was known for running backwards for a long distance with his troops. Note: During Bivouac in Fort Hood, my position was a machine gunner on top of a tank. Yes, I wore sunglasses to look cool.

Being a Rascal:

During basic training, I was firing my M-16 on the range next to my buddy. I had a marker on my range area, I think it was #18 and my buddy was #19. The targets were down range as far as 300 yards. I moved my M-16 just a slight bit and shot my buddy's marker, shattering it. The drill sergeant thought my buddy shot the marker and kicked him in the head, luckily my buddy had a helmet on. My buddy knew I did it and looked at me and said..."I will get even!!" I fired expert with my M-16 and my sergeant major asked me to join a tournament, because I was such a good shot with my M-16. On the day of the tournament, I forgot my glasses and did horribly. The SGM asked me why I wasn't shooting like an expert and I told him..."I forgot my glasses".

Bottle Rocket War:

At Fort Huachuca, Arizona, various soldiers on 4th of July, would head out into the woods and play war with bottle rockets. We would actually shoot bottle rockets at each other. Luckily, no one got hurt. Also, it was lucky that we never caused a fire in the woods. We would also shoot bottle rockets from our cars, while driving. Yes, we did some crazy things.

INITIAL REPORT:

Date to be there: Jan 10, 2014, Friday / Time to be there: 8pm Activity and History: Two urns are in this home. A friend felt a 'presence'. A friend heard 6 knocks on the window and no one was at the window. Occupant just wants validation if there is either something there, nothing there, or reasonable explanation of any kind of phenomenon that may be taking place in her home. Items around the house fall for no apparent reason. Address to be at: Sacramento.

THE OCCUPANT TALKS:

Amy will explain in her own words, her experiences in her home:

One guest was over and could feel the energy coming from my room and yet another energy coming from the guest room. On another occasion another friend was over and heard a series of six knocks on my bedroom window. There is absolutely nothing outside of the window. On one occasion things fell off the refrigerator that is where I would keep the candy and cookies he liked. After his death I would hear this walker come down the hall. The Christmas tree fell over twice on its own. I want to know if my deceased husband is still in this home.

THE TEAMS:

Jon Koyasako leads Team Ulysses with Kaylie, Melissa and Brent on his team. Big Al leads Team Lobo and leads Mark, Monique and Amy. There are two areas to cover. Area 1: Living room, kitchen, backyard, front yard. Area 2: Back bedrooms - 3 total.

When we arrived Amy gave us homemade lasagna, garlic bread, pumpkin roll, brownies, assorted cookies and candy, coffee and sodas. Thank you Amy! It was enjoyable eating these delights and watching SyFy Channel's Being Human.

FIRST INVESTIGATIVE EVIDENCE BRIEFING:

Many orbs are being captured in our photos. Big Al captures a 'shhhhh' EVP by the 2 urns. The 2 urns contain the remains of Amy's deceased husband and his brother. Round Table: Brent says that he felt energy in the master bedroom, the energy is heavy. There was a thump sound on the bedroom window. The front side bedroom was unsettling, distorted photos and orb photos were taken in that room. Amy confirms that a family member stayed in that room that had certain issues, which could have caused the residual energy in that room. Melissa says: she felt a fog in the master bedroom, she saw a light walk by and felt an energy flux. The energy flux caused her having a hard time gathering her thoughts. She says that the guest bedroom felt 'screwy'. Mark says that strange taps and knocks were heard in the garage area. Note: Monique felt something was going on in the garage and the team followed her and heard the knocks and tapings. Kaylie is capturing very strange anomalies in her photos, orbs, squiggly lines, moving orb and even a photo that looks like a vortex. Big Al captures an EVP that sounds like it is saying 'Sam'. Big Al captures a heavy breathing EVP - inconclusive - we call that a Darth Vader EVP. Big Al also captures a tapping EVP - knock (twice) EVP. The tapping and knocking was not heard with human ears, but were audio recorded.

SECOND INVESTIGATIVE EVIDENCE BRIEFING:

Investigating the backyard, Kaylie captures huge vortex type of photos, Brent captures huge designer orb photo and I capture an EVP of a man saying "I came through". Shari, Kaylie, Brent, Jon and myself are all capturing either vortex, designer orb photos. Jon, Brent and Kaylie all capture entangling mist in the palm tree with 3 different cameras! The backyard is the HOT spot! In the back room, Big Al's group all heard a female say 'no' and they recorded it. Brent's designer orb has a distinct face in it, but Amy does not recognize the face. Amy recognizes the EVP of the male entity saying "I came through" as being her deceased husband Larry. Amy was momentarily shook up after hearing this EVP.

THIRD INVESTIGATIVE EVIDENCE BRIEFING AND CONCLUSION:

On the third round, it was a free-for-all, allowing investigators to go anywhere they wanted to investigate. Half way through the investigation, I conducted a Catholic house blessing. When the blessing took place, a table falls over, then there was knocking on the garage wall and finally an orange light appears by the washing machine and then vanishes. The occupant feels the entities have left, pushed into the light by angels. With the vortex pictures, the Class A EVP of a male voice that the occupant identifies as her deceased husband Larry and all of the activity that occurred during the blessing, I would have to say that this home in South Sacramento was truly haunted. I now hope that the occupant can find some peace.

MESSAGES FROM DEANNA JAXINE STINSON:

Note from Paul: Deanna is preparing for her big interview on January 17, 2014 - here are a few messages she sent me: Hi~

Also it would be helpful if you have been answering my angel questions, I wanted to link to you to: www.angel-culture.com.

Hey Paul,

My drowning stories. I used to take baths with rose of Sharon oils, and get so high on the fumes~ lol. I have my best thoughts in the water. I did almost drown twice in my life. Once, in Lincoln, CA when I was 7 or so, and my mom and younger sister was driving back out of the driveway we thought that the water wasn't that deep, and we went under 10 feet, and it was scary.

Then, a man drove by at the right moment, I consider him an angel, his truck was so warm and he was so nice. After my mom dragged us out and saved us, we came out of the water. I had to wait first, my mom pulled me out first and I screamed as she left Abby, my younger sister alone in the car as she pulled me to shore. Never could get over her saving me first. Three days before, as a child, the thought came to me that we had the car immersed in water, I never made the connection until it happened tho~ I hold a lot of guilt about not realizing that premonition. When I was a toddler, I wandered into a pond because I saw cat-tails which I thought were so beautiful, and then I tripped or something and I became tangled in the cat tails. All I remember thinking was the water wants to take me back!! So, I have a spiritual connection with water. If ever, I let you baptize me, I would have to be naked lol~ for spiritual reasons! Have a nice day, I am going for a nice run~!

Also, you can buy my song "Honey" off of iTunes for .99 ~! lol or Amazon MP3 just look me up shooting star baby "Honey" or on www.teardropsofanangel.com There's a link on the left.

Paul~

Here is my eyeball story, so when we meet we can just get onto the vampire stuff and demon stuff~ That's a big part of my life. Well, I was small, I think about 5, I can't remember my exact age~ Well, I was at my daycare in CA. I was just outside playing by myself, and my "imaginary friends." I got this eerie feeling and looked above me. In the sky I saw a gigantic eyeball. It looked like it had lifted a veil, that looked like the sky, to peer in at me. It was scary. I think I remember the eye color being blue. It rolled its eye, like if you were rolling your eye into the back of your head. It was just one eye. It was as big as a small building and closer than the sun. It was a premonition. I looked at the entrance to the daycare, no adults were outside and a man with dark hair and glasses appeared. I was sexually abused that day. I was so afraid to say anything, I just kept thinking, if I talk he will kill me. I held onto it for years because I was so ashamed. I should have said something to save others. I should have realized what the premonition meant. To this day, I search for answers to what this giant eyeball is. Was it evil? Was it trying to hurt me or help me? Was it GOD? Paul~ When I saw the eye and it moved it also sounded like boulders rolling down a mountain~ Deanna

FRONT & BACK COVER

The cover and back cover were drawn by Richard Vasseur. 1st Drawing (front cover) is of Deanna Jaxine Stinson as Special Agent Stinson of the F.B.I. (Federal Bureau of Investigation).

2nd drawing (Back Cover) is of R2-D2 and C-P30 meeting The Demon Warrior aka Paul Dale Roberts and Iconic aka Richard Vasseur. The Demon Warrior and Iconic were summoned to the Star Wars universe, because there were wormlike creatures that were multiplying and eating all forms of energy. After the Demon Warrior and Iconic destroyed the parasites, we were sent back to Earth, our reality by C-P30 and R2-D2.
